

T: +44 (0)7977 538 511
E: mail@petehayns.com
W: www.petehayns.com

Diary service: Films@59
T: +44 (0)117 906 4334
W: www.filmsat59.com

Awards

BAFTA Nomination 2016 Factual Photography
Big Cats, An Amazing Animal Family

Emmy Winner 2012 Cinematography (Documentary)
RTS Winner 2011 Photography (Documentary)
BAFTA Nomination 2011 Factual Photography
Human Planet (Jungles)

BAFTA Nomination 2011 Factual Photography
David Attenborough's First Life

Recent & selected credits (Full list on website)

'Natural World: Red Ape'

Offspring Films/ BBC2

1 x 60 mins; HD PXW FS7; Director: Rowan Musgrave

With the plight of the orang-utan at a critical stage a look at rescue efforts in Indonesian Borneo and what the future could hold for the island's forests TX: 2018

'My Family & The Galapagos'

Seadog Productions/ Channel 4

3 x 50 mins (contributing); 4K PMW F5; Directors: Tom Whitworth, Ben Roy (SP)

Broadcaster & biologist Monty Halls takes his family to the Galapagos to reveal the islands' wonders but also the threats to their future TX: 2018

'Animals Behaving Badly'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC1

3 x 50 mins (contributing); HD PMW F55; Director: Hannah Gibson

Liz Bonnin looks at how 'bad' behaviour can give animals a survival advantage. Puff adds in South Africa & to Tanzania for chimps at Gombe & hyenas in the Serengeti TX: 2017

'Sound Of Musicals'

BBC Bristol/ BBC4

1 of 3 x 60mins; HD PXW FS7; Director: Andy Hall

Composer and musician Neil Brand delves into the world of musicals and what makes them perennially so popular TX: Jan 2017

'Dogs, An Amazing Animal Family'

Offspring Films/ Sky One

3 x 50 mins; 4K PMW F55/ PXW FS7; Director: Sam Hodgson

An international look at the world of dogs with Patrick Aryee TX: 2017

'Animal Symphony'

Quickfire Media/ Sky Arts

1 x 60 mins (contributing); HD PXW FS7; Director: Mark Fielder

Chris Packham explores the discovery that animals may be more capable of responding to music than we ever realised TX: 2016

'Monkeys, An Amazing Animal Family'

Offspring Films/ Sky One

3 x 60 mins; 4K PMW F55/ PXW FS7; Directors: Alex Williamson (EP), Clare Dornan

An international journey with Patrick Aryee for an overview of the primate world. Filming in Madagascar, Namibia, Uganda, China, Thailand, Indonesia, Brazil & Belize TX: 2016

'The Story Of Cats'

Plimsoll Productions/ ITV

3 x 45 mins (contributing); HD PXW FS7; Directors: Sam Hodgson (SP), Jo Haley, Anwar Mamon

To Japan, Thailand, Costa Rica, USA & UK for stories including clouded leopards, ocelots, pumas & the world's largest domestic cat TX: March 2016

'World's Weirdest Events'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC2

8 x 60 mins; HD PMW F55; Director: John Shackleton

In a Nevada ghost town with Chris Packham filming series links looking at strange phenomenon of natural history & science TX: September 2015

'Primal Survivor: Killer Climb & Cannibal Legend'

Icon Films/ National Geographic

2 of 8 x 50 mins; HD PMW F55; Directors: Anwar Mamon & Anthony Barwell

Survival expert Hazen Audel embarks on journeys in Tanzania & Papua New Guinea utilising local skills & techniques TX: January 2016

'Big Cats: An Amazing Animal Family'

Offspring Films/ Sky One

2 x 60 mins; 4K PMW F55; Directors: Alex Williamson, Martin Williams

Patrick Aryee looks at the incredible evolution & specialisation of the cat family. Filming in Namibia, South Africa, USA, Belize, Thailand, Indonesia & Morocco TX: December 2015

'Super Cute Animals'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC1

1 x 60 mins; HD PMW F5; Director: Chloe Pearne

Gordon Buchanan reveals how animal features that elicit a 'cute response' in us are actually key to a species' success. Filming in USA, Kenya & UK TX: February 2015

'Dogs: Their Secret Lives: Series 1 & 2'

Arrow Media/ Channel 4

6 x 60 mins; HD C300, HD PMW F5; Directors: Kirsty Wilson (SP), Owen Gower, Sid Bennett

Two series looking into the world of problematic dog behaviour TX: August 2014 & June 2015

'Super Senses, The Secret Power Of Animals'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC2

3 x 60 mins; HD PMW F55; Directors: Sam Hodgson, Kirstine Davidson, Alex Williamson (SP)

A look into the world of animal senses and how they outperform our own. With presenters Patrick Aryee & Helen Czerski in the USA, Caribbean, South Africa, Namibia & UK TX: August 2014

'The Spy Who Brought Down Mary Queen Of Scots'

Quickfire Media/ Channel 5 & Nat Geo

1 x 60 mins; HD Varicam 3700/ C300; Director: Mark Fielder

Exploring the Elizabethan fear and paranoia with regard to Catholics and the parallels with our current approach to potential threats to our security TX: May 2014

'Talk To The Animals'

Boundless Productions/ BBC1

2 x 60 mins; HD PDW F800; Director: Kim Maddever

What we understand about animal communication and the insight it gives us into their world. With presenter Lucy Cooke. Filming in Panama, USA, Uganda, Kenya & UK TX: July 2014

'The Burrowers, Animals Underground'

Dragonfly TV/ BBC2

3 x 60 mins; HD PDW F800; Directors: Martin Williams, Kirsty Wilson, Oliver Page

Chris Packham presents a unique insight into British underground mammals with specially built sets to allow observation of their subterranean life TX: August 2013

'Wild Burma, Nature's Lost Kingdom'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC2

2 of 3 x 60 mins; HDX900; Director: Anwar Mamon, SP: Sanna Handslip

Into Burma (Myanmar), where a gradual loosening of political restrictions allows a team of scientists and wildlife camera people to explore what natural history is hidden in the country's remote forests TX: November 2013

'Bill Bailey's Jungle Hero: Wallace In The Spice Islands'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC2

1 of 2 x 60 mins; HD Varicam 2700/ C300; Director: Sam Hodgson

The popular comedian travels to Indonesia to celebrate the intrepid but oft ignored naturalist Alfred Russel Wallace, whose ideas on natural selection prompted Darwin to publish his own theories TX: April 2013

'Who Do You Think You Are?: Alex Kingston'

Wall To Wall/ BBC1

1 x 60 mins; HDX900; Director: Sarah Feltes

The Doctor Who and former ER actress on a journey into her family past for the perennially popular genealogy series TX: September 2012

'The Dark, Nature's Nighttime World'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC2

1 of 3 x 60mins (contributing); HDX900; Directors: Rowan Musgrave, Jonny Keeling (SP)

In Belize and Costa Rica to discover the nocturnal wildlife resident in the jungle. With presenters Gordon Buchanan and George McGavin TX: July 2012

'To Kill A Mockingbird At 50'

BBC Wales/ BBC4

1 x 60 min; DSR; Director: Ros Edwards

Writer Andrew Smith travels to the American Deep South to explore the legacy of a literary classic on the 50th anniversary of its publication TX: July 2010

'Human Planet: Jungles'

BBC Natural History Unit/ BBC1 & Discovery

1 of 8 x 60 mins (contributing); HD Varicam; Directors: Willow Murton, Rachael Kinley

In the Brazilian Amazon to film two stories including the Matis tribe who hunt monkeys with blowpipes. Contributing to the Jungle film of this major series TX: January 2011

'David Attenborough's First Life'

Atlantic Productions/ BBC2 & Discovery

2 x 60mins; HD F900R; Director: Martin Williams

David Attenborough travels to Canada and Australia to investigate the fossil origins of the planet's very first animal life TX: November 2010

'Around The World In Eighty Days'

BBC Bristol/ BBC1

1 of 6 x 60 mins; HDX900; Director: Robert Murphy

Following Matt Baker & Julia Bradbury of Countryfile through Kazakhstan, Russia & Mongolia as part of a series in which celebrities have to circumnavigate the globe by relay with no air travel TX: October 2009

'North South Divide'

BBC Bristol/ BBC4

1 x 60 mins; DSR; Director: Robert Murphy

Journalist John Harris investigates the prevalence of the stereotypical English division between the north and south of the country TX: April 2009

'Everest - The Wildest Dream'

Atlantic Productions/ Cinema Feature & TV Releases

1 x 90 mins & 1 x 50mins (contributing); HD F900R; Director: Anthony Geffen

Following an ascent of Everest by Conrad Anker, who found George Mallory's body in 1999. Contributed to filming of the feature doc & filmed & co-directed the behind-the-scenes film for TV release. Involved filming at 7000m on the North Col.

Release: 2010