

Benjamin Wolff
DIRECTOR

Benjamin was born in 1974 in Hamburg. He studied at the London Filmschool. In 1994 he made his first experiences as a cutter-assistant after that he made experiences as a directing assistant in different production companies. He had his first job as a director in 2000 for German television. He finished the London Filmschool with the shortfilm "like a never ending Sunday" in 2001. Benjamin is also working as an author and shoots documentary movies and portraits.

In co-operation with AvenueRoadFilm Los Angeles, in 2013 Benjamin Wolff directed a fantastic, emotional and romantical shortfilm in Berlin: "Bis Gleich" won several prices at international Filmfestivals around the world.

Awards:

- + Prix Victoria in Silber
- + Art Directors Club: Silberner Nagel
- + London International Awards: Silber
- + Die Klappe: Bronze

"Bis Gleich" Shortmovie

- + La Costa - Jury Prize Best Short
- + Irvine - Best Short Film Audience Award
- + Idyllwild - Best Screenwriting Tara Lynn Orr
- + Breckenridge - Audience Award Best Film
- + Souq - Jury Prize Best Short
- + Rockport - Jury Prize Best Short
- + Boston - Jury Prize Best Short
- + Oceanside - Jury Prize Best Short
- + New York Shorts - Best Short Film Audience Award
- + Heartland* - Best Short Film Audience Award
- + Anchorage - Jury Prize Best Short
- + Savannah - Best Editing Constantin von Seld
- + California Women's Film Festival – Jury Prize Best Foreign Film
- + Dam Short Film Festival – Best Drama
- + Pasadena International Film Festival – Best Short Film
- + Sedona International Film Festival-Best Short Dir. Choice
- + Sedona International Film Festival-Best Short Audience Award
- + Cleveland* International Film Festival – Jury Prize Best Short
- + Cleveland* International Film Fest.- Short Film Audience Award

*(Oscar quali. Fest.)