TESTIMONIALS

“Ed was Assembly Editor on my comedy debut film - ADULT LIFE SKILLS - in which he cut the rushes, ran the cutting room and managed the post workflow (as we did not have a Post Supervisor). To trust him with this responsibility was a comfort that allowed me to concentrate on the performances and many other demands of a writer-director.”

Rachel Tunnard, Writer/ Director/ Editor (ADULT LIFE SKILLS, SHELL)

“Ed helped me out on - LIFE IN A DAY - a movie directed by Kevin MacDonal and produced by Ridley Scott. Together we managed to accomplish the crazy task of sorting through 4,500 hours of footage from 192 countries. He's an asset to any team and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend him extremely highly.”

Joe Walker, Editor (DUNE, ARRIVAL, SICARIO)
