INTRODUCTION

I was born and raised in Las Vegas, NV. After graduating from Full Sail University I was in search of a career in post-production. I landed an editor position at a small boutique shop in Orlando, FL. Cutting mostly local ad's and corporate videos. While fun, it wasn't enough to keep me satisfied. In 2001, I moved to Atlanta in search of something bigger. Today, I oversee a staff of talented designers, animators and VFX artists. I work with clients ranging from ad agencies, networks and studios bringing ideas and stories to life in live-action, design and animation.
